

Malá Strana (Lesser Town)

Things to See and Do (Prices are listed as adults/children, other discounts may apply.)

- 1 Church St. Nicholas - this is the dominant feature of Malá Strana. It's a beautiful Baroque masterpiece. One of the few churches with paid admission. (70/50 Kč)
- 2 Belfry at St. Nicholas Church - the bell tower has awesome views and was once used as a fire watchtower and later as a spy's nest for the secret state police. (100/70 Kč)
- 3 John Lennon Wall - a graffiti wall which was first created in response to Lennon's death. Now, it's an ever-changing art wall and symbol of love and peace (see the mill wheel nearby too).
- 4 Malá Strana Bridge Tower - this old tower offers great views of Charles bridge and Vltava River, also includes decent exhibition inside. (100/70 Kč)
- 5 Infant Jesus of Prague - People come from around the world to see and pray to this interesting statue of Jesus. Located in the Church of Our Lady Victorious. (Free) Read more
- 6 Nerudova street - walk this famous street which is part of the original Royal Route to the castle. The decorative pictures on the houses were once the original addresses.
- 7 Memorial to Victims of Communism - an evocative group of statues at the base of Petřín Hill which commemorate the victims of the communist era
- 8 Churches: St Thomas and St Joseph - these two beautiful churches are just steps from each other. St Thomas has a meditative courtyard and St Joseph a unique dome ceiling. (Free)
- 9 Little streets - the hidden, charming streets of Malá Strana give this district its reputation for being quiet and picturesque. Don't miss a chance to wander here off the beaten path.
- 10 Narrowest street in Prague - it's a bit silly, but this little street is fun to walk through. Follow the traffic light and don't get stuck!

Parks and Gardens

- 1 Vrtbovská Garden - a hidden gem, absolutely quiet and gorgeous. Most people don't visit this place, good news for us I guess. Open Apr-Oct (65/55 Kč)
- 2 Wallenstein Garden - Hidden between the Czech Senate and Malostranská metro station, you won't want to miss this garden. Open Apr-Oct (free) Read more
- 3 Kampa Island - a peaceful, green retreat just below Charles Bridge. Views, mill wheels, cafes, outdoor sculptures and children's playgrounds await you. Read more
- 4 Petřín park - the largest park in the city centre offers a day of sights and fun. Ride the funicular up the hill, dine with views, climb Petřín tower and much more Read more
- 5 Vojanovy Sady - a simple, yet surprising green space which most people skip over. Come here to escape, see the peacocks and the grotto.
- 6 Vltava River embankment - this tiny piece of land has somehow avoided development. The view is certainly special, and the swans are always photogenic.
- 7 Shooter's Island - not technically in Malá Strana, but it's so close I'm adding it here. Please visit for some of the best views amid the leafy trees.
- 8 Palace Gardens under Prague Castle - a romantic terraced garden on the slopes of the castle. Absolutely charming and overlooked. (Open Apr-Oct (100/70 Kč)
